

Timber Creek Campground Evening Programs

Sunday, June 26 – Saturday, July 2, 2016

8:45 p.m. Timber Creek Amphitheater

Sunday, June 26

This Land is Your Land

Our National Parks protect many natural and cultural resources. Learn about these and the history of the National Park Service.

Monday, June 27

The Poet's Playground

For a century National Parks have captivated writers and readers alike. Learn how these words spurred the creation of our National Parks, and how you can share your experiences in a new way.

Tuesday, June 28

Dreams of a Miner

The gold rush of 1849 made all of Colorado a potential source of wealth for those who dreamed of a better way of life. Who were these men? Who were the miners? Where did they come from? What were their lives like? We'll explore the answers to these questions and learn more about the men and women who helped establish the Code of the West.

Wednesday, June 29

The Poet's Playground

For a century National Parks have captivated writers and readers alike. Learn how these words spurred the creation of our National Parks, and how you can share your experiences in a new way.

Thursday, June 30

Behind the Lens, Through the Shutter

Learn how to improve your picture taking by joining the ranger for a slide show discussion on basic composition rules, lighting and tips for wildlife and plant photographs. The show will be applicable for beginners through serious amateurs.

Friday, July 1

This Land is Your Land

Our National Parks protect many natural and cultural resources. Learn about these and the history of the National Park Service.

Saturday, July 2

Bearable Bears

Discover what kinds of bears call Rocky Mountain National Park home and how you can stay safe in bear country.